ABOUT

A self proclaimed "Queerdo" born in Harlem to a pack of women. Five sisters and a momma. As MuMu describes her upbringing, "My sisters challenged me to be heard. My mother taught me to be loud. My god-mother encouraged me to listen."

Blasting onto the music scene in 2018 with her bold Free the Nip video, MuMu quickly gathered almost 2 million views on YouTube and started blowing up on social media. Short tours in South America, Australia, Spain and the US started building her audience, and in the summer of 2019 MuMu released her EP Ladies First – "chivalry...between the sheets."

MuMu writes and performs a unique brand of feminista, political pop music filled with intelligence and flair. This woman's performances come with plenty of rebellious attitude and humor.
